

RESOLUTION NO. 2015-

Mayor Engelstad offered the following resolution and moved its adoption:

WHEREAS, a municipal ordinance exists within the Borough which requires property owners to maintain their properties for the health, safety and welfare of all residents; and

WHEREAS, the Construction Office is empowered to issue warnings, post notices and subsequently issue violations if properties are not maintained and such properties pose a health hazard to the community, and

WHEREAS, after numerous attempts to contact the property owners, the Director of Community Development had informed the Borough of the need of the Department of Public Works to rectify the existing health hazards by cleaning up property debris; and

WHEREAS, as such, the Department of Public Works was required to maintain several properties within the Borough by cleaning out overgrowth and mowing lawns.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the properties listed below be assessed a miscellaneous charge on their property tax accounts for services performed by the Department of Public Works.
