

BOROUGH OF BRADLEY BEACH
BRADLEY BEACH BUSINESS COMMUNITY ALLIANCE AGREEMENT
RESOLUTION 2021-10

Mayor Fox offered the following resolution and moved its adoption:

WHEREAS, the Borough of Bradley Beach supports the Bradley Beach Business Community Alliance (BBBCA), incorporated as a 501(c)(6) in the state of New Jersey on 12/9/19, and;

WHEREAS, in its efforts to achieve the best possible business community for and in the interest of the residents of Bradley Beach allows for pro bono use of 719 Main Street (the Biase Community Center) as the address, office, and occasional meeting space (when scheduled with the Borough Administrator) for the BBBCA in furtherance of their efforts on behalf of the Borough, and;

WHEREAS, that the Borough agrees to have a link to the BBBCA on the Bradley Beach Municipal website and agrees to recognize the BBBCA in the municipal calendar and town guidebook as a separate, independent non-profit created privately for the businesses and community of Bradley Beach. The Borough municipal departments, Boards and Commissions will be invited to participate in BBBCA.

WHEREAS, the Borough supports the business, non profit and resident engagement on the BBBCA, the Borough will post BBBCA signage at the North and South end of Main Street and Ocean Avenue plus the Gazebo and Riley Park.

WHEREAS, the Borough wishes to recognize the BBBCA, one week in July, 2021 will be proclaimed BBBCA Week, including Celebration Saturday event in Riley Park.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Bradley Beach authorizes said agreement with the Bradley Beach Business Community Alliance.
